Gossip Guy

Mirror mirror on the wall, who spreads the gossip amongst us all, of course it's me, your one and only, et cetera, amen. Well, I'd ask you how did you like JYC, but honestly I don't care. Yet, what you should care about is what I think. It was the OG gossip girl who once said, "you are no one until you're talked about", so let's shoot my shot. For entrée, there's the on going turmoil, rivalry concealed by stiff hugs and awkward smiles, and then run a committee on world peace? hide it till you can, Noble N, jealousy is an ugly face on you. And your committee counterpart, well he is not even half as iconic to be mentioned by me, sorry A-viral, I tend to be too mean. Ice might help. And Taking about offence, not one day in and King A, offended half the people in his committee, I guess it is true what they say: if you wanna be sad, might as well be sad in AIPPM. Yet it's not all hate, I heard that certain shade of black is singing to the tales of hers truly's smile, so cute, but save yourselves from the eyes of prey. Love is in the air, it makes me wanna live in a vacuum, so only hate here, it spreads faster. And the price of this ruling class, yes, AD you, spreading gossip, am I dead or is your downfall in making, story it. Revenge coach, well, you google "revenge" and you get to mokshsharma.com (<http://mokshsharma.com>), he takes what is his and then takes some more. Akaisha, ruining a bond is one thing, but ruining a selfie? Unforgivable. Little 'G', you have had a sneaky game? Well not all is hidden well with Prada, try Gucci next time, it serves me better. Poor S, tough crowd to impress, well I would have said relatable; but I never fail to dazzle. Work hard! Rumour has it, there's a power play in making, guess monopoly was just too silly, right chairs, or were you just dominated by your co-chairs? I told you these snakes will bite you at your worst, which in you case in all-the-time. Well shouldn't the press be doing the reporting or they are already under the spell of your co-chair, she didn't lie about her profession there? Only time will tell. I usually don't take sides but, facts are facts. An advice, when you wake up, sit up and say a little prayer, cause my breakfast is not gonna be you finest hour. For you start targeting me? It's a proven fact that you can't catch anonymous, i'm untouchable. Try me? And you will fail again.

XOXO

ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTIES MEET

"An independent media is the watchdog of democracy, ensuring that those in power are held accountable to the people they serve."

- Ban Ki-moon

Based on the fourth pillar of democracy, the AIPPM committee chaired by Aarya Mahajan along with the Co-Chairperson Sachdeep Singh, the Vice Chairperson Ryan Lamba and the Rapporteur Kushagar Sambyal plans to deliberate on the Freedom of Press in India with Emphasis on Media Trials. The discussions are to underscore the complex landscape of media trials in India. While the country upholds democratic values, the media's true freedom remains in question due to inherent biases. It can be argued that sensationalism and corporate influence often lead to skewed narratives and compromising impartial reporting.

During the Ice Breaking session, the Executive Board effectively outlined the rules of procedure, to ensure a structured debate and stressed the importance of forming alliances to foster collaborative discussions. Delegates are encouraged to engage in thoughtful deliberations, consider the delicate balance between press freedom and ethical media trials and take a call to revive the integrity of unbiased journalism.

INTERNATIONAL PRESS CORPS

In the International Press Committee, where we delve into global affairs and report them with accuracy and integrity, an Ice Breaking session was chaired by Daania Butt, along with the Co-Chairperson Aadya Sambyal, the Vice Chairperson Sanvi Arora and the Rapporteur Adhvik Mahajan. The committee addressed the intricate balance between digital media ethics, online safety, and the preservation of free speech.

In their opening remarks, the Executive Board highlighted the importance of respectful discourse and adherence to the Rules of Procedure to ensure productive deliberations. They underscored the significance of fostering collaborative solutions that strike a balance between digital ethics, safety, and fundamental freedoms, hoping for an outcome that reflects the complexity of the issue at hand. Moreover, the majority of the committee consisted of delegates who were new to the concept of IPC and its agenda, so witnessing the convergence of reporting and deliberation paradigms was a refreshing experience for them.

While the Online Safety Bill presents valid concerns, safeguarding expression is crucial. The committee strives to look for a solution that upholds both ethical standards and fundamental rights which still remain a paramount challenge.
