AT JYC 2022

Second Day Edition

So the second day of JYC!!!!

We began with first sessions of the committee. There were dances, There were cries and then there were rallies (led by your own editor) and then there were epic GCL People were thrown and new alliances were made.

The first committee session had an grand start where new limits were set for the opening speeches.

Most committees also held crisis today (EB had of the missing Cyso). And the editor promises she heard someone cry from Lok Sabha, but alas the delegate was just giving a speech.

We held press conferences over press conferences. (Proof: Camera Flashes). Now the editor asks you what was missing.

And obviously the SOCIALS with the soul rocking band performance (chef's kiss) and shocking (in a good way duh) dances (I think the stage shook)

To conclude, JYC 2022 has risen the expectations of all MUNs and obviously increased the scale for next generations.

Official Newsletter from Jodhamal Headquarters.

Hello Delegates, are we ready to spill some tea ?

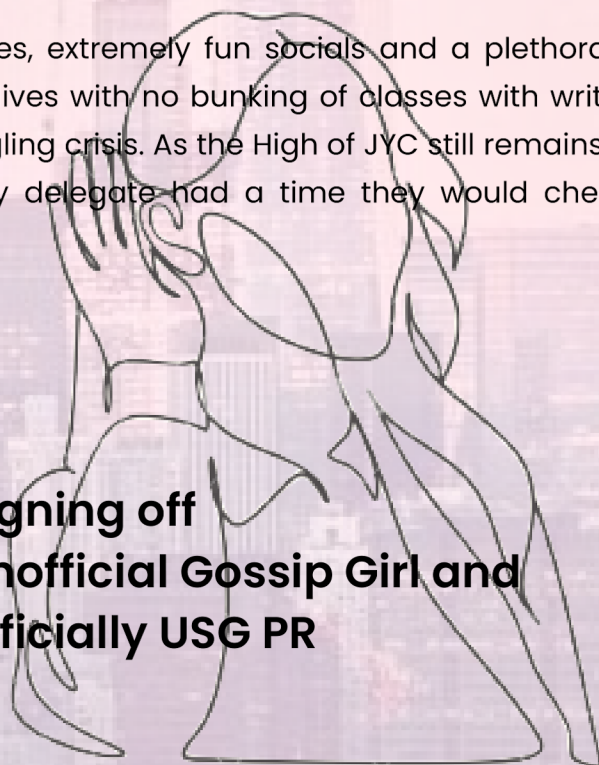

The committees started on a rampage with each committee having fiery debates and rebuttals! The ICIJ delegates went bonkers and voted out the director ICIJ! The committee had speculations, accusations and a whole lot of drama. Whereas, UNPBC, which is supposed to be a peace making body had its delegates going bananas with the crisis. With a whole lotta desk banging, lung cracking screams and mandate breaching, this committee definitely became a sight to behold. IPC had its own share of drama, with the delegates getting lost before the first committee session, to Miss Editor in Chief scolding her already timid delegates to delegate of Tass being kidnapped during the crisis. Miss Vinisha, I hope you had fun during the conference. There is also rumour that the USG for public relations reportedly had a brawl with the SEC GEN which ended in Madam USG being upset and Sir SEC GEN being unbothered. We sincerely hope all misunderstandings have been cleared between the both. Mr Akshat Dogra probably tried the hardest to introduce a crisis in his committee with him and Mr. Karmanya Wahi having a debate over Anti Satellite weapons for over half an hour. Ms Divyanshi Trakroo remained a little upset over not getting any ask outs for the Del dance. The Executive Board of UNGA sixth committee "Legal" proved to be the most "OUT GOING" as they were seen more outside the committee than inside it ( hehe). In Lok Sabha, the delegates had the esteemed chairperson dance and the delegates Sonia Gandhi and Piyush Goyal reportedly had something brewing between them! ( Wink;Wink). Chair person UNPBC proved to be the most Careless person when she lost her phone and gavel 2 times during the conference and went on to have a rant about it! Maam we would advice you to be more careful please!! Though the chair wasn't there, he was still the centre of attention during the more in AIPPM

As we come to an end of 3 days of exhilarating debates, extremely fun socials and a plethora of emotions, we would be returning back to our mundane lives with no bunking of classes with written permissions, no banging and shouting and no mind boggling crisis. As the High of JYC still remains on their sleep deprived faces, The directorate hopes every delegate had a time they would cherish forever!

CONQUER JYC

Welcome Delegates to JYC Day 2

We woke up with bang- banging headache. And then obviously a daily dose of "positive" criticism. So we are keeping it sweet today. Our advice:

1. Don't wear new shoes (my shoe bite is proof of that)
2. Make your outfit perfect for tomorrow (you don't want bad pictures when get awarded)
3. Mind your own business (We all know you are a nosy bunch)
4. Also no more pictures. I know I know are column is so popular. (my dream today)
5. Bring a snack (We will keep on writing it until you give us food)

P.S. If you need any advice, your conquering the JYC team is sitting in the empty committee with identical mactops.

PS2 Miss Sunshine would like to formally apologize to VINNU for the typo in the previous newsletter.
